

CENTRALIZING
KNOWLEDGE & EXPERIENCE

INTRODUCTION

Heavy industry has a lot in common with the airline industry: they're capital-intensive, with an extreme focus on safety and efficiency. All assets work together, flawlessly synchronized, as part of a bigger fleet. But most importantly, maintaining an optimal fleet requires centralized and shared knowledge and experience, to prevent reinventing the wheel, make more informed decisions, and create enhanced situational awareness.

Since 1962, Rolloos offers just that: end-to-end solutions for hazardous and remote operations that centralize your knowledge and experience. Solutions that combine certified hardware, intelligent analytics, and extensive domain knowledge, for safer operations and maximum efficiency.

OUR VALUES

Our values trigger us to put in extra effort to reach your goals. They define what Rolloos stands for, and what you can expect from us as partners.

PARTNERSHIP AND TRUST

Partnership and trust make our lives more efficient, successful and joyful. We love to share ideas and ambitions and prefer collaborating over working alone. Share our trust and partnership, and we all benefit.

A COMPLEMENTARY TEAM

Everybody is unique, and nobody is perfect. Our complementary talents combined can be amazing. At the same time, we will also tell you about our weak points, to prevent unwanted surprises and enable you to share your complementary skills.

AIM FOR THE STARS

Why settle for the status-quo if you can aim for the stars? We are true to our talents and work hard to get the most out of them. The challenge to outperform what might reasonably be expected is what gets us excited.

LIFELONG LEARNING

People, technology and organizations are continuously evolving, allowing us to learn something new every day. We are a curious bunch who want to understand how things work. We love challenging today's limits and taking you along on the journey.

WE ARE FAMILY

We work together as partners, within a complementary team, while aiming for the stars and eager to learn. We share the good and the bad and help each other out in case things go differently than planned.

TELL ME AND I
FORGET. TEACH ME
AND I REMEMBER.
INVOLVE ME AND I WILL LEARN.

INNOVATION

Innovation defines our geek existence; it's our way of life. In our partnership, we share our passion and bring together complementary skills and knowledge to try new things. This requires trust, structure, and discipline.

Trust is needed for three things. First, it helps us confidently share operational weaknesses and ideas about ways to mitigate them. Second, it streamlines the process of innovation. Above all, it allows us to cope with the inevitable moments of failure. Trust ensures we stay on the same page, even then.

Structure is created by identifying and prioritizing bottlenecks and focusing on the main ones. Through an agile development process and iteratively including your operational feedback, you benefit right from the start. There is no better way to optimize our innovation for your operational needs.

Discipline is essential to remain focused while new ideas pop up continuously. Only a finished and successfully implemented solution counts. We are fully committed to that goal.

None of this is relevant without the notion that innovation is about exploring the unknown. Sometimes the unknown is clear; occasionally it is dark. Either way, we all need guts to enter and explore.
