The meeting was called to order at 9 am. Introductions were made via Zoom. Thad Dunham provided the IADC Antitrust Guidelines.

REVIEW PREVIOUS MEETING

- Discussed survey results, can be found HERE
- Discussed existing standards and how various standards are used by different companies
- Reviewed ESG pages/initiatives of other trade and industry associations

HOW CAN IADC ASSIST MEMBER COMPANIES WITH ESG

The group discussed finding a starting point and agreed it would be beneficial for IADC to create a new page on its website to serve as a central location for ESG related documents. It was requested to include any material on ESG training on the page as well. The group also agreed on IADC staff creating an ESG statement internally and distributing to the workgroup for review, prior to the next meeting.

The idea of IADC advocating in the form of serving as an interface between standards/ratings agencies and our member companies was discussed. IADC could potentially advocate by acting as a voice to the agencies and by reinforcing the positive steps the drilling industry is taking relative to ESG programs.

As more of a long-term goal, the idea of creating general ESG guidelines was discussed. Ian Clark provided a relevant document from the Norwegian Ship Owners' Association; can be found HERE. The group reviewed the document and agreed something similar to the tables on pages 10-13 would be a suitable goal for future IADC guidelines.
