Make the most of IADC membership: There are many ways for employees of member companies to get involved, such as submitting abstracts for conferences or joining a committee. IADC also has a network of regional chapters that offer local networking and professional development opportunities. Please note each regional chapter operates independently with distinct membership requirements.

Individuals may contact our Membership Department (membership@iadc.org) to learn more about how to get involved, or visit www.iadc.org for more information on IADC programs, committees, and initiatives.
